

The telegraph

1 :

People mention in the text are Doctor Jeff Steinberg, clinic director, Doctor Kearns and Lousie Brwon. Two countries are mentioned : USA(Los Angeles) and Britain.

2 :

The topic discotier is « designer baby » wich means that parents can choose their baby's physical characteristic. It is very controversial issue among the medics. Doctor Kearns is totally against the fact of using advances to identify dangerous diseases in embryo cell wheras for Doctor Steinberg, tjis progress is exciting since it enables parents to have babys who are expected to conform to their wishes.

3 :

The document is an article, by British news paper, The Telegraph. The author is Shewell. The author goal is to represente a burning issue. The scientifique revolution wich is used to cure severe illnesses, can help to shape baby's bodies. At the end of the article, the author wonder if this technologie raises the issue of what is ethically acceptable or not.

A genetically screened baby saved the life of his sister

1 :

The different people in the texte are Molly, Adam, Lisa and John, the parents.

2 :

They decide to have an other baby genically tested to save the life of Molly who had a rare genetic disease. They made this choise in the perpose to help their daughter who was destinated to die so she was curred thanks to a transplantation from her brother Adam.

3 :

It's an article from the CBS NEWS web site. The author's goal is to show that thanks to PGD we can improve and save lifes and heal severe diseases. The technique uses that he takes a real example of a family whose daughter life has been safe by this progress in medecin